CUTLINE

Robert C. Hendon, Larchmont, N. Y., vice president of Consolidated Freightways, Inc., will take part in the Montana Governor's Conference on the Arts in Helena Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 15 and 16.

Hendon will participate in a panel discussion on "Business and the Arts." Panel moderator will be Goldwin McLellan, New York, N. Y., president of the national Business Committee for the Arts.

Other panelists are George Irwin, Quincy, Ill., chairman of the Illinois Arts Council; E. E. MacGilvra, Butte, trustee of the Montana Historical Society; Joseph Sample, Billings, president of ^{Garryowen} ~~Country~~ Broadcasting System, and Larry Smith, Missoula, president of the Montana Chamber of Commerce.

Hendon resigned as vice president of Railway Express Agency in December to accept his present position. After Feb. 1, he will be headquartered in Washington, D. C.

The former Montanan holds degrees in journalism and law from the University of Montana, and in 1967 he received the UM Alumni Distinguished Service Award. He serves on the UM Foundation board of directors. He is married to the former Ruth Perham of Butte.

The public is invited to attend the conference without charge, according to Dr. Charles W. Bolen, dean of the UM School of Fine Arts and chairman of the Montana Arts Council. The MAC is coordinator of the conference, which is sponsored by the governor.
